Signs of the Times

Sun North and Bright

Way too far North, way too high in the dome, and way too bright. This has been observed and documented recently from America and Europe, as documented in this Pole Shift ning blog. This implies a lean into opposition, where the N Pole of Earth is pointing consistently more toward the Sun and Planet X. Leaning into opposition places Earth in a comfortable position, along the magnetic flow lines of Planet X, aka Nibiru.

ZetaTalk Explanation 8/6/2011: As Planet X moved closer still, enveloping Earth in its magnetosphere, a type of flipping about also began, where the Earth would tilt its N Pole away or flip in the other direction, into opposition along the magnetic flow lines of Planet X. The Earth will attempt to placate the dominant magnetic field of Planet X by lying in opposition, actually pointing its N Pole toward the Sun.

Late afternoon on June 9, 2013 at 4:30 pm the Sun was “virtually overhead” in Blackpool, UK as determined by the shadows. The Sun should have been casting long shadows at that time, about one-third way up in the dome (Altitude 30), closer to the horizon than the top of the dome, per Skymap. Yet from the angle, it appears to be twice that, two-thirds of the way up in the dome. In Wisconsin, I, Nancy, had a chance to take a couple readings when the Sun was quite visible. In both cases the measure was 20° or more too far to the North. The Sun was also rising early and too high in the dome by about that same measure, 20°.

June 9: The Sun at 16.30 hrs in Blackpool North West UK. Note the shadows under the cars on the road - Sun virtually overhead! [and from another] June 11: I just took a measure here in Wisconsin at 6:55 am DST. By my measure the Sun was at Azimuth 53 in the NE and Altitude 40, Per Skymap it should have been Azimuth 73 and Altitude 17. This is fully 20d too far to the North and fully 20d too high in the dome! I have had these readings pretty consistently, during sunny days, which are few and far between in our lingering cold spring here. [and from another] June 17: Sun way too far North. Skymap says it should be at Azimuth 68, but it is at Azimuth 43, a full 25d too far North!

Another phenomena is also apparent – a sunrise occurring for hours before the Sun is scheduled to rise, with the sunrise seeming to last for hours. This is the Second Sun, sunlight bouncing off the vast dust cloud of Planet X so it appears two suns are rising, one after the other. A webcam capture in Sweden on June 15, 2013 shows the Sun rising hours too early. The Second Sun was captured on the webcam at 00:55 am. Predawn light is traditionally evident only the hour or at most two hours before sunrise.

Why is the Sun rising in the sky over Stockholm right now? It's been rising since about 1.20 am and it's only 1.50 am in the morning in Sweden. It's not supposed to rise until 3.30 in the morning.

In the UK, in a cam looking out over the water at Whitby, there can be no confusion about just where the horizon lies, one can see by the reflections that the Second Sun rose on the water at 3:42 am, an hour before the actual Sun comes up over the horizon at 4:55 am. Reflections don't lie!

This was likewise noticed in Italy on June 16, 2013 where a webcam shows the dawn breaking hours earlier than the expected time. The ecliptic stretches from lower left to upper right at dawn, in the Northern Hemisphere, thus Planet X "rises" first. If this is the case, then the true Sun will be rising a bit to the left of the Second Sun. Where a rising Sun in the Northern Hemisphere would move steadily to the right while rising, the light from the "Sun" is rather appearing first on the right and then an hour later, appearing on the left. This shows the first appearance to be Planet X, the Second Sun.

This extended pre-dawn brightness also goes hand in hand with what many are reporting, an ultra-bright Sun. The fact that the Sun seemed to go from a yellow orb to a white orb has been noted since 2003, since Planet X arrived in the inner solar system. It has been noted that sunburn occurs more rapidly. Since the presence of Planet X, aka Nibiru, has been under a cover-up, such topics are rarely discussed in the media, but having the twilight start 3 hours early in Sweden and Italy, as recorded on the webcams, snuck around the cover-up. Why is there extra light? Per the Zetas the Sun's rays are now bounced off and through the tail of Planet X, and thus bounced are arriving from the side as well as directly from the Sun – an increased barrage.

ZetaTalk Explanation 12/11/2005: What causes the Sun scald, the intense brightness that does not translate into increased heat and cannot be correlated to solar activity or sun spots? A fog bank, with a light shown on it, appears to be evenly lit, because the light is scattered and bouncing back to the observer. The Sun's rays, scattered, are presenting the same mix to your eye that high noon presents. Likewise with the rays that created sunburn, which normally are not bent toward the observer at sunset or at other than high noon, but now are scattered to arrive at one's skin. The time of day is no longer a protection from sunburn. This will only get worse, as the tail continues to turn toward the Earth.

Title 14 Expose

Part of UFO lore, and the long running battle with NASA to admit to the alien presence, is the story of Section 1211 of Title 14, which spelled out the quarantine of those having contact with alien life and imprisonment of those who refused to cooperate with NASA's rules. This statute was put into law by Congress in 1969 (the year the Andromeda Strain was published), mentioned as a threat by the Pentagon in 1982 (the year the movie ET hit the theaters), and not removed from the books until 1991.

Federal Law Prohibits Any Contact Between U.S. Citizens an Space Aliens or UFOs

<http://www.truthorfiction.com/rumors/a/aliens.htm>

Title 14 is the part of the code dealing with aviation and space and sections 1211 through 1299 specifically regulate the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA). Section 1211 was added in 1969 when the U.S. would be bringing a space vehicle and astronauts back to earth from a mission to the moon. The section was designed to protect the earth from any contamination that may have been picked up during the trip.

*The Extra-terrestrial Contact Law
1211.100 Title 14 – Aeronautics and Space
Part 1211 – Extra-terrestrial Exposure
1211.100 – Scope*

This part establishes: (a) NASA policy, responsibility and authority to guard the Earth against any harmful contamination or adverse changes in its environment resulting from personnel, spacecraft and other property returning to the Earth after landing on or coming within the atmospheric envelope of a celestial body; and (b) security requirements, restrictions and safeguards that are necessary in the interest of national security.

Alien Contact Laws- $5,000 Fine And Imprisonment

http://www.unexplainable.net/ufo-alien/alien_laws_legal_ufo_regulations_no_alien_contac_223.php

On October 5, 1982, Dr. Brain T. Clifford of the Pentagon announced at a press conference that contact between U.S. citizens and extra-terrestrials or their vehicles is strictly illegal. According to a law already on the books, Title 14, Section 1211 of the Code of Federal Regulations, adopted on July 16, 1969. It is certainly not a coincidence that Dr. Clifford held his press conference during the period when the popularity of the film E.T. was at its peak. The NASA administrator is empowered to determine with or without a hearing that a person or object has been "extraterrestrially exposed" and impose an indeterminate quarantine under armed guard, which could not be broken even by court order. There is no limit placed on the number of individuals who could thus be arbitrarily quarantined. The definition of "extraterrestrial exposure" is left entirely up to NASA administrator, who is thus endowed with total dictatorial power to be exercised at his slightest caprice, which is completely contrary to the Constitution.

Extra-Terrestrial Exposure Law

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Extra-Terrestrial_Exposure_Law

NASA revoked the rule in 1977 and the rule was formally removed from the Code of Federal Regulations in 1991.

Per the Zetas, Title 14 Section 1211 showed the great paranoia that existed within the CIA and the DOD over contact, the basis of their influence on so many Hollywood movies showing aliens rampaging and eating or destroying mankind. Per the Zetas, the Title 14 law actually gave NASA the power of life or death over citizens having contact with aliens. The definition of the word "quarantine" does not exclude the need to potentially nuke or incinerate those infected if required for complete "isolation" or to "prevent the spread of disease".

Quarantine

<http://www.thefreedictionary.com/quarantine>

quar•an•tine (ˈkwɑːr ˈnɑːtɪn, ˈkwɑːr-, ˈkwɑːr ˈnɑːtɪn, ˈkwɑːr-) n., v. -tined, -tin•ing, n.

1. a strict isolation imposed to prevent the spread of disease.
2. a period, orig. 40 days, of detention or isolation imposed upon ships, people, animals, or plants on arrival at a port or place, when suspected of carrying a contagious disease.
3. a system of measures maintained at ports, frontiers, etc., for preventing the spread of disease.
4. a place or station at which such measures are carried out, as a place where ships are detained.
5. the detention or isolation enforced.
6. the place, as a hospital, where people are detained.
7. social, political, or economic isolation imposed as a punishment.
8. a period of 40 days.
- v.t.
9. to put in or subject to quarantine.
10. to exclude, detain, or isolate for political or social reasons.

ZetaTalk Comment 6/15/2013: The Andromeda Strain book was published in 1969, the year Title 14 was amended by NASA to cover infection by germs from space. Yet in those days, MJ12 was regularly meeting with aliens! During contact, protection from infection is handled by the aliens, who must worry about such contamination moving in either direction. NASA knew they did not have this capability, thus worried. Was their worry warranted? We have confirmed that the red rain falling near India includes cell structures from space, so the possibility of such encounters absolutely exists. But the Earth is bombarded constantly with dust from space, and immune systems on Earth developed accordingly. There is no worry, within your solar system, of such a plague descending upon Earth.

The Title 14 brouhaha is yet another example of NASA shooting themselves in the foot. At the writing, NASA was anticipating a potential scenario as occurred in the Andromeda Strain, where the populace at large might be infected and a sudden need to quarantine and even destroy towns and large numbers of citizens would be required to contain the infection. Title 14 gave absolutely authority to the head of NASA, and was vague enough so almost any steps might be pre-authorized by Congress. Would they need to drop a nuke on a town to contain the infection? Done, no hesitation required. "Quarantine" means preventing the spread, and does not specify the means.

Eventually, the absurdity of the Title 14 Sections 1211-1299 became an embarrassment. NASA denied intelligent life elsewhere existed, yet had a law on the books covering contamination from "spacecraft" arriving on Earth. Since Title 14 clearly mentioned person to person contamination, it was not limited to astronauts or NASA personnel. Thus UFO buffs and contactees feared this law would be used to prosecute them. Such a threat was implied in 1982 when the movie ET was released, as though the public was being given a warning not to seek contact. Having lost the bid for credibility and influence, NASA quietly removed this Title 14 section in 1991. Meanwhile, the number of contactees has skyrocketed.

The Andromeda Strain

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Andromeda_Strain

Publication date: May 12, 1969. When a military satellite returns to Earth, a recovery team is dispatched to retrieve it; during a live radio communication with their base, the team members suddenly die. Aerial surveillance reveals that everyone in Piedmont, Arizona, the town closest to where the satellite landed, is apparently dead. The base commander suspects the satellite returned with an extraterrestrial organism and recommends activating Wildfire, a protocol for a government-sponsored team that counters extraterrestrial biological infestation.

Canadian Disclosure

An outcome of the Citizen Hearing ongoing in Washington DC was testimony by the Canadian Minister of Defense, Paul Helyer. He addressed the number of alien races interacting with the governments of the world, but surprisingly was courageous in addressing the desires of those in mankind trying to create a New World Order. He is describing those among MJ12 who wished to use their knowledge to gain power. He was not alone in stepping up to the mic. How far we have come since the days when NASA was given the authority to quarantine, imprison, and perhaps kill whomever had unauthorized contact.

The cabal comprises members of the Three Sisters, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Bilderbergers, and the Trilateral Commission, international banking cartel, the oil cartel, members of various intelligence organizations, and select members of the military junta (?), who together have become a shadow government of not only the United States but of much of the Western world. The aim of the game is a world government comprising members of a cabal who are elected by no one and accountable to no one. And according to Mr. Rockefeller, the plan is well advanced.

Canadian Minister of Defense Delivers Info on Known Alien Races
June 1, 2013

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PPIHTOTan6A>

Former Special Assistant to the Executive Director of the CIA Victor Marchetti: The US government, in collusion with the other national powers of the Earth, is determined to keep this information from the general public. Sworn Affidavit by Lieutenant Walter Haut concerning his experience of the 1947 UFO crash at Roswell, NM: Haut describes seeing the UFO and the occupants consisting of alien bodies as well as a high-level meeting with Col. William Blanchard and General Roger Ramey, Commander of the Eighth Army Air Force. Astronaut Scott Carpenter: There was a constant surveillance by UFOs. Colonel Joseph J. Bryan III, founding member of the CIA's psychological warfare staff, advisor to NATO: These UFOs are interplanetary devices systematically observing the Earth, either manned or under remote control, or both. Information on UFOs, including sighting reports, has been and is still being officially withheld.

Per the Zetas, what is more remarkable than the testimony is the fact that these individuals have not been killed!

ZetaTalk Comment 6/15/2013: The current association of the former MJ12 members is now no more significant than the Bilderberg Group, though these individuals have certain knowledge of aliens and the pending passage of Planet X, and some have met aliens in the conscious contact allowed in the past for MJ12 members. What changed that Paul Hellyer was able to describe the composition of what he calls a Cabal or Secret Government? The rules are loosening, and the actual membership of the Cabal growing to include others who were never under the Governing Boards of MJ12. The actual MJ12, in the past, required any new members to sign an agreement that they could be put to death for either revealing the existence of MJ12 or profiting from their membership. Paul Hellyer was never a member.

The original goals of MJ12 did not include a New World Order or world government. There were of course many agendas, each individual holding his own agenda. Military members wished to gain control of alien technology and others wished to learn the date of the pending passage of Planet X while keeping the public ignorant. Due to the publicity the courageous Paul Hellyer's testimony has received, others will be emboldened to question the actions and influence of members of the Bilderberg Group, the Council on Foreign Relations, and the Tri-Lateral Commission. The influence of big oil companies and military industrial complex interests will likewise be increasingly scrutinized. All to the good.

Bleeding Trees

Appearing the Apocalypse of Ezra, bleeding trees are supposed to be a sign of the approaching Apocalypse. Why would trees bleed, and is this on the increase? They certainly are appearing in videos. But I Googled the issue and it appears that bleeding trees are nothing new, have appeared worldwide, and are not a hoax at all. Per the Zetas, they are on the increase as the immune systems of trees are being affected by Planet X, just as the immune systems of all creatures are being affected these days.

Bleeding Trees: An Apocalyptic Sign? The Apocalypse Of Ezra Predicted It

<http://beforeitsnews.com/strange/2013/06/bleeding-trees-an-apocalyptic-sign-the-apocalypse-of-ezra-2449216.html>

According to the Apocalypse of Ezra, one of the signs of the approaching 'Apocalypse' will be trees bleeding; does this video show just that or is this merely 'sap'?

The Ezra-Apocalypse

<http://bit.ly/11GLOxe>

And blood shall trickle forth from wood, and the stone utter its voice. The people shall be in commotion, the outgoings (of the stars) shall change.

ZetaTalk Comment 6/15/2013: Blood red sap, either sticky or liquid, is not uncommon in trees, and many species have shown this in many places around the world. The sap can suddenly turn red, and can be side-by-side with milky or golden sap. Is this a disease or indicative of iron oxide in the water drawn from the ground? Sap draws water up from the subsoil and delivers nutrients and oxygen back down to the branches, trunk, and roots of the tree. Why would it not be possible for this algae to grow in the nutrient rich sap of trees? Why would the Apocalypse of Ezra mention bleeding trees as a sign of the coming Apocalypse? We have mentioned increasing illness as the time of the Pole Shift approaches, due to stress. Trees have inherent immune systems, resisting being eaten by all manner of pathogens, including parasitic algae. Bleeding trees have a faltering immune system.
